Our mission is to tell the stories of Yukoner's ingenuity and self-sufficiency through the history of transportation in the Yukon.

You can support our mandate through an annual membership in the Society. Our mandate is to identify, acquire, preserve and conserve the history, cultural material and artifacts of Yukon's transportation modes and to interpret this history in an educational manner for all Yukoners and visitors alike.

The success of the Yukon Transportation Museum depends on the interest, generosity, involvement and sometimes, hard work of volunteers together with the encouragement and commitment by our professionally trained staff.

The Yukon Transportation Museum Society was formed in 1986, its purpose, to promote and preserve Yukon's transportation history. That same year, the Society won a tender to save a 1956 Military Recreation Centre and use it to house artifacts and exhibits exploring Yukon's transportation history. The Society began stabilizing and repairing the building and the museum officially opened to the public on July 1st, 1990.

As a member of the Yukon Transportation Museum Society, you are invited and encouraged to participate in the direction of the museum through our Board of Directors, and you will be invited to participate in volunteer activities and many interesting projects.

If you are interested in volunteering, please contact the museum at 668-4792. Tell us your interests—we would like to arrange a positive and satisfying experience for you.
